 section of the State and the legislature feels constrained to do something to relieve the situation.

The special order in the House Friday night was the reformatory bill, the committee's substitute for the bills of Representative Preston, of Mecklenburg, and Senator Holt, of Guilford, incorporating The Stenewall Jackson Manual Training and Industrial School. It appears that the women behind the proposition are only asking to be incorporated under the title aforesaid for the purpose of beginning work toward the establishment of a reformatory for youthful criminals, a subject which has been much discussed for the past two or three years. Of course an appropriation will be asked for later on and it is believed that this legislature will contribute liberally to such an institution. A petition asking for the establishment of a reformatory was unrolled by Mr. Preston which reached from the door of hall around the speaker's stand and back to the door again, as the galleries applauded vociferously. The bill passed by a vote of seventy six to six.

There has been less fatalities, resulting from sickness among the members, here this winter than during any previous meeting of the General Assembly for many years. Not a single death has occurred so far and few serious cases of any malady have been reported. We have experienced no severe weather, but snow has twice made its appearance for a short time. Evidences of merry spring time are apparent on every hand.

Garren's Blood Purifier and Tonic

THIS tonic has been on the market for 12 years. It is purely a vegetable preparation, compounded of roots and herbs of the most approved medicinal value, gathered out of the mountains in Western North Carolina where their curative properties are in the best state. It is carefully compounded by maceration until the drug in each ingredient is fully extracted from the herb or root. Hence, in Scrofula and all Scrofulous affections, Skin Diseases, such as Erysipelas, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Scald Head, Ringworm, and Ulcer it is a wonderful curative agent. For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Kidney troubles, Pains in the back and bowels, it can be used with a surety of getting better results than from any other blood medicine. It will positively cure indigestion and stomach trouble.

The testimonials we give, in which the parties testify they were cured of Scrofula, Indigestion and Rheumatism, were those who had tried many other remedies, and had been under the treatment of the best physicians, without getting relief. When the stomach is involved, by fullness after eating, this remedy has no equal. In Indigestion or Dyspepsia it can be taken with confidence that a healthy condition will soon be formed, and eating will be a pleasure rather than a discomfort. Constipation will soon yield taking this remedy.

While taking this medicine live simply, observe the rules of health, resting, sleeping and chewing the food well. The tonic effects of this remedy are quickly noticed in the appetite created, the restored digestion, and general improvement of the whole system. The most sensitive stomach can retain the medicine, as it is entirely free from all mineral matter.

When the bowels are irregular or constipation unusual, take a dose of
